MAJOR MAILERS ASSOCIATION'S
NOTICE OF INTERVENTION

Major Mailers Association hereby gives notice of its intervention in this proceeding. In accordance with section 20 of the Commission's rules of practice, the Association states the following:

1. Major Mailers Association is an association of quality First-Class Mailers, organized for the purpose of promoting fair and equitable postal rates, classifications, and rules. The Association was a participant in Docket No. MC95-1 and the past three general rate cases, among other proceedings.
2. The Association's members are among the largest mailers of First-Class Mail that is presorted and pre-barcoded. The Postal Service's proposed change in its rates and fees would affect the Association members' postage costs, their costs of mail preparation, and their eligibility for postage discounts.
3. The Association and its members will be affected by the decision in this proceeding, including those which establish precedents applicable in future cases.

Respectfully submitted,
